From the Pulpit

Marching Towards the New Year With Hope

Let me begin by offering a very sincere todah rabah – thank you! Zach, Jacob and I are so grateful for the warm welcome that we've received at Temple Israel. As we can all appreciate, moving to a new city is not easy. Nevertheless, your warmth and generosity have helped to smooth this important transition. We're thrilled to now call Ottawa home. If we haven't yet met, I'm eager to connect with you soon.

The Jewish year of 5780 is almost here. As is the case with most beginnings, we greet this new year with excitement and anxiety, hope and fear. What will this year offer? On the global front we pray for peace and prosperity. On a more personal level we yearn for health and happiness. Many of us may have baggage to leave behind; 5779 may not have been perfect. We may have lost loved ones or struggled in various ways. Perhaps we've made mistakes.

One of the most well-known High Holy Day liturgical pieces is the poem, "Who will live and who will die?" The explicit words remind us that there is much in our world that we do not control. However, it is essential to note that the final words of the piece: tefillah (prayer), teshuvah (repentance) and tzedakah avert the Divine decree. In other words, even though we are not all powerful, we are empowered to make holy choices in our lives. We can focus our words for good, rectify those instances where we may have strayed and we can strive to be charitable. These actions can serve to counter the forces in our world that are beyond our grasp. As we enter the New Year, we hit the reset button and recalibrate ourselves. Our words, actions and even thoughts have the potential to make a difference.

While I cannot make promises as to world or familial events, I can confidently say that we need not fear. Whatever the new year holds, we will embrace it as an extended family, bound together as one. For example, I've been touched by the stories that have been shared with me about the narrative of Temple Israel. I was particularly interested to hear about the fire on the old site. Such a crisis could have brought the congregation down, but instead Temple Israel was rebuilt with great commitment and care.

I look forward to celebrating with you at Rosh Hashana. Together, we will journey into 5780 with strength and courage. Shana Tovah.

Rabbi Daniel Mikelberg

President's Message

What? Labour Day already? It's hard to believe how quickly summer has gone, with the cooler nights hinting at autumn on the horizon. But just as certain as the back to school flyers is the return of High Holidays.

Once again this year, cantorial soloist Daniel Geigerman will be joining us to provide a special musical flavor for the High Holidays. Daniel has been rehearsing with Ellen Asherman and the Temple Liturgical choir. We all know that Temple loves its music and appreciates the hard work and dedication of the musical team. Temple Israel is very grateful to the David Loeb Foundation, through the initiative of Arthur Loeb, for the generous support of Daniel's return.

Rabbi Mikelberg has completed his first month with us, meeting with many of you and with many in the greater Ottawa community, in settings large and small. We look forward to him leading us in his first Temple Israel High Holiday services, with the help of Rabbi Garten, our Temple choir, Daniel G., and the Ritual Committee. New to Temple Israel, the Mishkan HaNefesh, the Machzor for the Days of Awe, generously funded by a Temple family, will guide us through these special days. The excitement is building.

Please make your arrangements with the office regarding High Holiday tickets, for yourself and for any out of town visitors. Do it now. For everyone's safety and well being, tickets are required for admission. No tickets, no admission. Your cooperation is welcome and appreciated. I also suggest that, where possible, you car pool with others, as street parking nearby on Prince of Wales will be very limited and this will put a strain on the Hellenic Centre and Temple parking lots.

As outlined in your 2019-20 dues letter, we welcome your generous dues contributions to ensure a strong and vital Temple Israel. Thank you.

While High Holidays are in the spotlight now, work has been going on in other key areas. Our Nominating Committee is working on a slate of directors for the Annual General Meeting in November. Temple Israel Religious School is ramping up for another busy year.

Looking forward to sharing prayers and song, healing and remembrance with you and your family, not only at High Holidays, but also at our Friday night and Saturday morning Shabbat services. This is how together we build and strengthen our sacred community.

Stephen Asherman, President

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Welcome to another year at our newly restored Temple Israel Religious School. TIRS is Ottawa's premier center for Jewish learning from birth through Grade 12 and we are back on track for a fantastic year ahead.

We are kicking off the new year with a family program on the theme of "What's in a Name?" on Wednesday, September 4th from 4:30 – 6:00 pm. In addition, FROSTY, JYG and TIRS have joined together for a Challah and Honey fundraiser to support family and youth programming in the coming year. Don't forget to order!

We continue to benefit from Jewish Federation of Ottawa's P2G and Geshar Chai programs. Our bond with Einat Hagalil Democratic School in the north of Israel has strengthened over the last 3 years. In the past, Morah Malkah was the lead teacher. Morah Jenny joined her about 2 years ago and will be taking on that role for our Grades 5 and 6 classes. We are very proud to be the only supplementary school in Canada that has a partner school in this program. Our students are just as excited to receive mail from their Israeli pen pals as they are to send their own letters and videos. Some of the students have even been communicating by WhatsApp, Skype and email outside of class time. This partnership has truly advanced the notion of Klal Yisrael (unity of the Jewish people) for our students.

I look forward to another year where each grade will be active participants in a Kabbalat Shabbat or Shabbat morning service. In addition, younger students will have opportunities to learn and interact with older students throughout the year (i.e. Simchat Torah). Please plan to support all of our students at this monthly service.

Programming for families, children and youth continues this school year with Jewish holiday and Tikkun Olam (repairing the world) themes. We invite families with young children to monthly programs like TOTally Shabbat (4th Friday), JBaby Shabbat Play Group (2nd Shabbat) and JBaby Oneg Shabbat at Hillel Lodge (1st Friday).

For children in Grades 3-8, Junior Choir returns monthly as well as JYG (Junior Youth Group) for grades 6-8 or 5-8. Morah Ranit provides 2-3 JYG programs like Dungeons & Dragons (4th Sunday) and a NEW JBotics program (2nd Wednesday) thanks to a microgrant received from Jewish Federation of Ottawa.

For our high school students, we have FROSTY (Federation of Reform Ottawa Senior Temple Youth) who travel with their Advisor, Lisa Rossman, to other camps and cities within the North East Lakes region of NFTY as well as local programming. Sometimes, JYG and FROSTY get together for "ALL YOUTH" (Grades 6-12) programs like Tu Bishvat & Chocolate Seders. For more information, please contact me at any time.

NEW!! This year, we are offering 2 certificate programs:

1. Madrichim Program for High School/University students. This program will teach our TAs how they can better serve the teachers and students they work with and will be facilitated by Morah Karli.
2. Grade 11-12: This once per month class (1st Monday) will delve into the world of Jewish and Israeli approach to Jewish law (Halacha), society and government from a Talmudic and modern perspective.

With all of the great things going on in our school, it is no surprise that our enrollment continues to grow. At the end of the last school year we had over 90 students. With the growing interest for 3 year-olds to attend, We are anticipating a preschool program on Sunday mornings for 2- and 3-year-olds in the near future. Please let me know if you are interested!

I am always open to receive feedback as we work together to ensure success for our children in a safe, inviting, inclusive, and engaging school.

Sue Potechin, TIRS Principal

We sometimes imagine that the make up of the Jewish community was standardized in the past, though the reality is that we have always been dynamic and diverse – it's part of our beauty as a Jewish people. In the Reform movement and at Temple Israel we pride ourselves in celebrating the rich fabric of our eclectic community.

Our panel will speak to the realities of Judaism in the 21st century. Our youngish clergy team will reflect on their journeys as clergy that look a little less traditional. With the new year season approaching, we will have the chance to reflect on how we honour tradition, embrace the present and march towards the future with eyes wide open. Join up for an exciting conversation meant to ready us for the challenges and opportunities before us in the year 5780.

Gratitude by Joseph Kertes
reviewed by Rabbi Steven Garten

1944: War's darkest period descends upon Hungary's Jews. By the time it ends in January 1945, over half a million Jews will have been murdered.

"Gratitude" tells the story of that period, through the eyes of the wealthy Beck family, whose lives and loves are saved and lost. At the centre of it all is Paul Beck, a young lawyer whose chance meeting with a visiting Swede, Raoul Wallenberg, may alter the inevitability of the Jews' fate.

Sunday October 20, 2019.

Revolutionary Yiddishland: a history of Jewish Radicalism by Alain Brossat and Sylvia Klingberg will be reviewed by Angus Smith

Before the Holocaust, Yiddishland was a vast expanse of Eastern Europe numbering some 11 million people.

Within this territory, revolutionaries arose from the Jewish misery of Eastern and Central Europe; they were raised in the fear of God and respect for religious tradition, but were then caught up in the great current of revolutionary utopian thinking. Socialists, Communists, Bundists, Zionists, Trotskyists, manual workers and intellectuals.....this book traces the struggles of these militants, their singular trajectories, their oscillation between great hope and doubt, their lost illusions--a red and Jewish gaze on the history of the twentieth century.

Most books are available through the Ottawa Public Library and the Greenberg Families Library at the JCC and the Temple library.

Note from the Welcoming Committee

After their frigid arrival last November in Canada, Sarah and Kong have particularly enjoyed Ottawa's summer weather. They were kept cooler in their apartment, thanks to the oscillating fans donated by generous congregants for their comfort.

They both celebrated their first Canadian birthdays this summer. Now it's the excitement of back to school; Sarah attended ESL classes during July, and she will be restarting in September. The on-site childcare at the ESL school provided Kong with an excellent opportunity to play with other children. While Sarah continues with her schooling, Kong will settle into his new junior kindergarten class at Riverview Alternative School. They are looking forward to their new daily routine.

A couple of items that would be helpful to Sarah and Kong are gift cards for groceries; easy-to-read adult books; toiletries, lotions, toothpaste, soap, laundry detergent and other such consumables. There is a box in the Temple lobby where items may be left, or you may call the office. Thank you for your help and contributions.

If any congregants would like to meet Sarah and help her with reading or conversation, or take them on outings with your family, or if you have activities in which Sarah and/or Kong could participate, or if you would like to get to know them better or help them out financially, please be in touch with the Chair of the Welcoming Committee.

You will find a pleasant young woman who is happy in her new home, and a sweet, smart little boy who loves playing with toy cars.

Temple Sunday Afternoon Concert Series

The concert committee is pleased to announce the lineup for our 2019-2020 Sunday afternoon concerts. The series is intended to build from our foundation, which has been to provide a venue for local classical chamber music ensembles, to include adjacent genres, and instrument configurations that we think our audience will enjoy while attracting new attendees from the community. Many of our concerts feature a connection to our Jewish roots through composer, performer or genre and often include music rarely featured on the Ottawa music scene.

Sunday November 3, 2019 - 2PM "The Ancient Law"

Alicia Svigals – Violin, Donald Sosin – Piano

After a sell out performance of The Yellow Ticket in February, we are thrilled to welcome back New York based Alicia Svigals, co-founder of the Grammy Award winning Klezmatics. Alicia and Donald will perform Alicia's original score to the screening of the 1923 silent film "The Ancient Law". The film tells the story of the son of a shtetl Rabbi who leaves his home to pursue his dream of becoming a stage actor in Vienna at the turn of the 20th century.

Sunday December 1, 2019 - 2PM "On Wings of Song"

Yosuke Kawasaki, Jessica Linnebach – Violin, Jethro Marks – Viola, Paul Marleyn – Cello

This year we also welcome back this all-star Ottawa based chamber ensemble featuring works by Erwin Schulhoff (duo for violin and cello), Felix Mendelssohn (String Quartet Op.80) and Samuel Barber (Adagio for Strings). With their very tight touring and performance schedules, we are very fortunate to have booked them for our venue this year.

Sunday December 15, 2019 - 2PM "Cellobration – From Baroque to Rock and Roll"

Chloe Dominguez, Paul Marleyn, Daniel Parker, Raphael Weinroth Brown – cello

This will be a treat for Cello lovers. These musicians have put together a really fun program of short pieces arranged for four cellos that span the spectrum from Bach to Metallica with various stops along the way.

Sunday March 29, 2020 - 2PM "Hot Club Jazz"

Justin Duhaime's Gypsy Muse with special guest William Lamoureux – violin

Take yourself back in time to Paris in the 1930's when the famous Hot Club featured the likes of Stephane Grappelli and Django Reinhardt. That's the feel of this band. Jazz on these acoustic instruments has a unique sensibility that is fun, soulful and always approachable to ears less familiar with the jazz category. While still quite popular in Europe, this style often takes a back seat to the brassier avant garde at local jazz festivals. Toronto based William Lamoureux returns to Ottawa to join the band to deliver a performance that is sure to have your foot tapping.

Sunday April 19, 2020 - 2PM "Music of the Diaspora"

Nina Gordon – cello, Dina Namer – piano

This program will feature rarely performed works by Jewish composers Mario Castelnuovo-Tedesco, Paul Ben-Haim, Friedrich Gernsheim and Pancho Vladigerov. Much of the program is derived from the research of Cellist Nina Gordon, who is on the music faculty at Illinois Wesleyan University, and Ottawa based Dina Namer, who teaches piano at Queens University. Both are featured soloist at Temple Israel's high holiday services.

This year we have a number of ticket options to help stabilize our financial structure so that we can plan and book our performers well in advance as well as bring to Ottawa acts that would otherwise be out of reach at accessible ticket prices.

General Admission for individual concerts:

INSIGHT INTO JUDAISM

An Educational and Spiritual Journey

Come and join Rabbi Mikelberg this fall at Temple Israel as we delve into Jewish faith, Jewish culture and Jewish life. This year long journey will be embarked on as individuals and in community. Torah will be our guide. We will explore tradition and texts, history of the Jewish People, Jewish holy days, ritual and life-cycle events. No previous experience necessary.

Insight Into Judaism includes a weekly Hebrew language component which will have all participants comfortable with essential Hebrew prayers and blessings.

Insight Into Judaism is ideal for anyone, Jewish or non-Jewish, who is interested in learning more about Jewish life and Jewish heritage. It is also for those seeking conversion under Reform auspices. Students are asked to commit to attend weekly classes from September 2019 through May 2020.

The course will run on Monday evenings from 7pm until 9pm. The first class will meet on September 16, 2019 and will run until May 2020.

The course is $720 for non members and $360 for Temple members. Materials included.

If you are interested in enrolling in the course or for any other inquiries, please contact the Temple office at 613-224-1802 or reception@templeisraelottawa.com

Kiddush Sponsors

Shabbat Oneg

Temple Shabbat Oneg is a wonderful time to catch up with friends and maybe meet some new ones.

Did you know that you can help sponsor an Oneg? Some good reasons to sponsor a kiddush lunch or oneg Shabbat:

- It's your birthday, or your friend's or your pet's etc.
- It's an anniversary of a special event
- In memory of a loved one
- To celebrate a special event
- Because you are a swell person who likes to support your favourite synagogue

Your sponsorship helps to offset the cost of providing the weekly basics and more.

Kiddush sponsors are thanked in our newsletter unless you choose to remain anonymous.

Thanks to the following who made recent contributions to Temple.

Ezra Miller in honour of the 50th anniversary of his Bar Mitzvah.

Temple Israel Board of Directors to welcome Rabbi Mikelberg

Kim Doran & David Goldstein in honour of their anniversary

Susan Bridenstine & Victor Rojas in honour of David's Bar Mitzvah

Yahrzeit: Remembering on the Anniversary of a Death

Lighting candles and saying Kaddish each year in memory of a loved one.

Yahrzeit is a Yiddish word meaning anniversary of a death. It is the yearly anniversary of a loved one's death. Jews observe yahrzeit at home by lighting a special long-burning candle in memory of the deceased and at Temple yahrzeit is observed by reciting the Mourner's Kaddish at services. The names of deceased with yahrzeit during the preceeding week are read at our services on Friday nights and Saturdays.

In addition to lighting yahrzeit candle many individuals choose to make a donation to mark the observance of a yahrzeit. If you would like to make a donation to Temple or sponsor a Kiddush in observance of a loved one, please contact the office.
