Celebrating Your Bar/Bat Mitzvah with your Temple Israel Family

We read in the Torah that Abraham and Sarah were inspired by God to “Lech Lecha – Go Forth!” They were tasked to go on a sacred journey. The exact destination was unknown, but they were confident that the destination was one of blessing and promise. The journey itself was one of growth and along their way they learned that they never need feel alone – they could look to God, their community and the strength within.

As Jewish families we follow in the footsteps of Abraham and Sarah as we journey forward. There are many milestones along the way, meaningful touchpoints that allow us the opportunity to prepare and reach high. As the young people of our community turn 13, we eagerly celebrate their transition to adulthood by calling them to Torah in honour of their Bar or Bat Mitzvah. As a Temple
