

YOM KIPPUR

Virtual and in-person
offerings "In The Tent!"

Cantorial Student Daniel Geigerman. The service will include an interactive Vidui - a confession of the soul for the 21st century.

Soulful Shacharit, 10:45 am to 12:15 pm: Join us for a musical, interactive, and engaging outdoor service with Rabbi Dara Lithwick and Cantorial Student Daniel Geigerman. The service will focus on togetherness as we reflect on this day of soul searching. Everyone is welcome, this service is aimed for friends from 12 to 112 years old.

Choose Wisely, 11:15 am to 12:15 pm: Every thought, word, and act can make a difference. Our traditional morning Torah reading places us at the border of the Promised Land. The Israelites are instructed to make the best of the opportunity set before them. The Torah and Haftarah will be followed by Rabbi Steven Garten speaking on the themes of the day.

Healing Service, 1:30 pm to 2:15 pm: On Yom Kippur afternoon, take the time to nourish your soul even as your body is hungry. Join Rabbi Steven Garten and Lisa Hans on this musical and spiritual journey as we aspire for refuah as individuals and a community.

Sailing the Waters with Jonah, 2:45 pm to 3:30 pm: Mort Bercovitch will take us on a theatrical journey with his reading of Jonah. Rabbi Dara Lithwick will continue with a textual study of this riveting tale of a naïve man trying to run away from his responsibilities.
