Class description:

Children in our Hebrew program will learn Hebrew letters, vowels and their sounds, how to write in Hebrew and prayers in preparation for Shabbat Services and for B'nai Mitzvah. Students are put in classes by Hebrew Level, after reading, writing, comprehension assessment.

Students work in Berhman House Aleph-Bet Quest and Shalom Evrit, along with activities that are supplemented at the teacher's discretion. We encourage teachers to think outside the box and creating a engaging "living" creative classroom.

Our goal is to ensure our students are a knowledge of the Hebrew language that allows that to follow along in a service, be able to read from the Siddur and most importantly leave with a love and excitement about learning Evi/Hebrew!

Qualifications: 2 years' experience working with kids in a classroom setting or leadership role an asset. Knowledge of the Hebrew Language. Formal background in Education is an asset. Knowledge/background in Reform Judaism is a asset

Teacher Role:

- Submit and carry out long range and weekly lesson plans
- Communicate with parents
- Ensure the safety and well-being of the students
- Create an inviting and engaging (virtual classroom environment)
- Participate in staff meetings and training

Teacher Skills:

- Ability to build a trusting relationship with students and their parents
- Hebrew language skills: Read, write (scripts and block), basic comprehension
- flexibility to adapt plans according to student needs
- Can teach different skill levels
- works well in a team with other staff
