From the Pulpit

In the words of Ecclesiastes, "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven." May and June tend to be the season when things wind down and we head into summer mode. Shortly we'll get into High Holiday gear, but we can take some time to enjoy the shalom of these days and reflect on our Temple accomplishments to date.

*The building has been packed in recent days, including Confirmation, Pride Shabbat and a Volunteer Celebration. A common theme: Temple is our home, a place where we share special connections with one another, a haven to direct our generosity. It warmed our hearts to see the Confirmants accept their silver links, for the youth leaders to champion diversity in song, to nosh on party sandwiches with fellow volunteers.

*True, the story of our building campaign is not linear, we do often take two steps forward and one back. While there continue to be questions about our exact pathway to success, we have made tremendous strides this year and can be exceedingly proud. It's a tremendous feat for our congregation to have raised over 4 million dollars for our pledges for our Door to the Future Campaign. Almost 70% of our community has made a pledge. This is nothing short of extraordinary, we love our Temple and to give at this level displays our hopes for the future. It is with these funds that we will responsibly identify the best path forward in months to come.

*Here come the High Holidays! We will be hosting services in Temple, last year this proved to be a very meaningful choice. Similar to last year, we will have a variety of options for services and we will continue to livestream. Our motto, something for everyone!

Even as things wind down in July and August, don't be a stranger, it would be wonderful to see you over Shabbat. Our choir is also looking for new members (hint, hint!). Every other Friday we'll be hosting services in the backyard of the bayit. And finally, let's wish the 18 youngsters in our community a wonderful time at URJ Camp George! May this summer be one of peace of joy.

Rabbi Daniel Mikelberg

HAPPY CANADA DAY

President's Message

How do we build community? How do we encourage individuals to care for the greater good? These are some of the questions that were addressed in the Torah parashah a few weeks ago.

On June 10, 2023, we honoured our volunteers. The Torah portion on that day was Parashat Beha'alotcha.

Twice in this Parsha, the word 'asaf' is used to describe the gathering of seventy elders to support Moses in leadership and which is interpreted to mean, 'the embracing generosity of a concerned community,' – I admit, I am inspired that Moses could find seventy willing volunteers! Here in our tent - the Temple Israel tent - we have had a year like none other. We have climbed back from the COVID abyss, stronger and more determined than ever; we have led a formidable campaign for a renewed Temple building (almost there!); and, motivating that is our need to make this building more accessible. To transform our spiritual gathering place into a place that is accessible to all, where everyone in our Temple family and beyond can feel welcome. True, there have been challenges, and there is still a distance yet to go, but overall, we are the definition of the word ASAF, 'the embracing generosity of a concerned community'.

In the last few weeks our sacred space has been filled as we have celebrated the end of a great school year with a TIRS family picnic, Confirmation, Pride Shabbat and our monthly birthday and anniversary Shabbat with a chance to catch up with Temple friends after at kiddush lunch!

There are many other ways we have demonstrated 'ASAF'.

- We have exceeded expectations and benchmarks for Life and Legacy.
- Of course, all those contributing and working so hard to make our building renewal project a reality
- We have a taskforce committed to Indigenous reconciliation who held a wonderful and inspiring weekend on Indigenous relations and continue to seek outreach opportunities.
- Temple's Board and its Committees: school, youth, finance, Jewish Life, programming, choir, minyan, lay cantors, books and bagels, and more, all thriving and working to support Temple and its betterment.

That probably totals even more than 70 people, so we are just as good as Moses in volunteer recruitment, I think!

To me, it's the nature of reciprocity that defines volunteering. You start out by helping others, but you realize along the way, that, in fact, the benefit is as much your own as it is the community's.

And the reward, I believe, is in the fulfillment and wellbeing of a thriving community. And we are grateful. Grateful for all the hours and expertise given to the benefit of our Temple family. Grateful for our shared belief that

Door to the Future Campaign

We have had an overwhelmingly positive response to our building campaign and I am so pleased to report that we are very close to meeting our original Campaign target amount of $4.3.

The Board received an update on the building project at the June Board meeting and heard that several options are still being explored. We are working hard to bring reasonable, achievable options to you, our Temple community, and once the Board has agreed on our next steps, you will have an opportunity for input. Although the definitive plan for next steps has not been decided yet, some of the options we are exploring include:

value engineering, design modifications and other measures to obtain potential cost savings; options for additional fundraising and financing; and a few other options as well together we can make each other, our community, our Temple, and the world a better place, Tikkun Olam – a fundamental value of ours.

We are so grateful for all the hard work our volunteers and advisors have contributed to this project! Stay tuned for more news very soon!

So, I would like to say to each of you, todah rabah – thank you, for all you do for our Temple community. And just as the elders who gathered to share the load of leadership with Moses, I thank you for 'gathering' here as our Temple community - together to share the rewards of working together for our Temple family.

Wishing you a safe and relaxing summer!

INSIGHT into JUDAISM

The course will start in September 2023.

Each year Temple offers an Insights to Judaism course for committed individuals looking to explore their Judaism, or perhaps new to Judaism. This can be a course that leads to conversion, but for many it is simply a learning opportunity.

Come and join Rabbi Mikelberg as we delve into Jewish faith, Jewish culture and Jewish life. This year long journey will be embarked on as individuals and in community. Torah will be our guide.

We will explore tradition and texts, history of the Jewish People, Jewish holy days, ritual and life-cycle events. No previous experience necessary.

Insight Into Judaism includes a weekly Hebrew language component which will have all participants comfortable with essential Hebrew prayers and blessings.

Students are asked to commit to attend weekly classes from September 2023 through May 2024.

The course is $720 for non members and $360 for Temple members. Materials included.

If you would like to explore if Insight is right for you, please contact rabbimikelberg@templeisraelatowa.com.

Yahrzeit: Remembering on the Anniversary of a Death

Yahrzeit is a Yiddish word meaning anniversary of a death. It is the yearly anniversary of a loved one's death. Jews observe yahrzeit at home by lighting a special long-burning candle in memory of the deceased and at Temple yahrzeit is observed by reciting the Mourner's Kaddish at services. The names of deceased with yahrzeit during the preceding week are read at our services on Friday nights and Saturdays.

In addition to lighting a yahrzeit candle many individuals choose to make a donation to mark the observance of a yahrzeit. If you would like to make a donation to Temple or sponsor a Kiddush in observance of a loved one, please contact the office.
